

Charles Isaiah Crapper

January 29, 1965 - October 22, 2013

CHARLES I. CRAPPER, son of the late Russell V. Crapper Sr. and Sylvia E. Jones Crapper, was born on January 29, 1965 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed his life after a lengthy illness, with his sister, children and grandchildren by his side.

Charles, known to all as “Little Man,” received his education in the Baltimore public schools. He was employed at various jobs and was well known as an Arabber.

Charles made numerous friends wherever he went and will be truly missed by everyone who knew him. He was a true friend and a devoted father and grandfather. Charles had a heart of gold, and he would give you the shirt off his back if needed.

He was a lover of music. “Little Man” had a great sense of humor and he loved to dance. He loved watching sports on television along with his action movies.

He leaves to mourn: four children, Dekita Crapper, Nicole Crapper, Charles Crapper (Branch) and Shawnya Crapper; ten grandchildren, Keontay, Keon, Amauri, Amajé, Isaiah, Cadyn, Charles, Shanya, Kimora and Simone; sister, Rochelle D. Crapper Peay; brother, Russell V. Crapper; brother-in-law, Troy E.

Peay; sister-in-law, Cassandra Crapper; two nieces, Monique Dashiels and Tiaria Peay; grandmother, Dorothy Jones; two great-uncles, William and Sylvester Toles; great-aunt, Alice Toles; devoted son-in-law; four uncles, Larry Crapper, Harvey Jones, James Jones and Steven Jones; six aunts, Paulette Crapper, Marion Davis, Lagrant Branch, Cynthia Jacob, Darlene Crapper and Donna Jones; and a host of cousins, other relatives and close friends including two good friends who were just like his brothers, Leroy and Rufus

“ Charles Isaiah Crapper

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ To the family of Charles Isaiah Crapper:
*Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few seek the comfort they search for. The doctrines that are taught concerning death find their origins from men and not the Bible. As a result, they fail to leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. However, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29; Matthew 5:5). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32). “ I would like to extend my condolences to the Crapper family and friends. May the God of all comfort (2Corinthians1:3-4) continue to sustain you during this difficult time. John5:28-29 and Revelation21:4 tells us of a time when there will be no more sickness and death and when our loved ones that have fallen asleep in death will be restored to perfect life in a paradise earth. With deepest sympathy.
