

Charles W. Curtis

August 22, 1930 - September 5, 2013

CHARLES W. CURTIS, affectionately known as “Kirkie”, son of the late Mr. Roland Edingburg and Ms. Mary Frances Curtis, was born in Baltimore, Maryland on the 28th day of August in the Year of Our Lord 1930. Suddenly without notice, God dispatched an escort on Thursday, September 5, 2013, for “Kirkie” to come home.

Charles “Kirkie” received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System. In September of 1951, he was drafted into the United States Armed Forces, where he served until 1953. He went on to pursue a career at the Western Maryland Railroad System and later retired from the Sun Cab Company, Inc.

Charles met and married Ms. Catherine Bright and from this union nine children were born. Charles loved to joke and had a “sunny” personality. He loved his grandmother, Mary and was always quoting something she had said during his life’s journey. He loved Jazz music and all types of sports.

Charles attended The Community Baptist Church of Walbrook, Baltimore, Maryland, where he loved to hear good preaching until his health failed him. He leaves to cherish fond memories: his children, Charles, Bruce, Barry, Denise, Delores, Linda (his caretaker), Craig and Alease (four children preceded him in death, James, Christine, Kevin and Ronald); thirteen grandchildren; twenty- four great-grandchildren; one great-great-grandchild; one aunt, Marie Johnson; a long-time close friend, Mr. Gregory Lewis “Ghost,” and a host of other aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
