“ To the children and family of Charles Johnson; This is a day that will always remain in your memory. To some it may seem like the end, but to those of us who have a relationship with Jesus Christ, like Charles had, we know that this is just the beginning of a new life for him. What a glorious time to celebrate his home going. A time when we can see the unchanging nature of God. God gave us Jesus Christ, the Savior of the world, to give us abundant and eternal life. Upon this family, he found favor and gave us Charles. A loving, kind and faithful man to his family and friends. It was Christ working through him. We can celebrate with joy in our hearts for his life. We give thanks for every moment God gave him to us. Christmas this year will be a great time of reflection. Our loved ones, who are in the presence of Christ, are there cheering us on to love God, hate sin, and to give into the lives of others. As we come together to share this time, we know it pays to serve Jesus, it pays everyday, it pays every step of the way. To a man who made a deposit in our lives and has served well, we give thanks to God. May the peace and grace of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ be with you during this holiday and days to come. Love, Mary Frances Watkins and children###imported-begin##Gale Hudson###imported-end##
