

Charles Diggs

April 22, 1941 - June 18, 2003

Charles “Eggie” Diggs, son of the late William Henry Chavis and Beatrice Mary Diggs, was born April 22, 1941 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on June 18, 2003 after a lengthy illness. He received his education in Baltimore Public Schools. After completion of school he worked for Lee’s Furniture Company for many years. Being the businessman he was he became an Entrepreneur. His first business was a Carry Out Restaurant (“The Last Stop”). He then became part owner of a Mobile Gas Station. He also owned eight Outside Clothing Stalls at West Lexington Market that flourished into his own Diggs Retail Sales. He was the owner and Coach of the Eastern Royal Softball Team. The team played all over the city and held the Championship Title for over five years. At a young age he married Shirley Thomas who he later divorced but remained good friends. He had and loved dearly a close friend Mary “Chick” Cooper, whom he shared his dreams, his struggles and his accomplishments. “What came first, the Chick or the Egg?” This was a frequent asked question, because you would never see one without the other. Eggie loved his family, especially his mother. Also his sister Shirley who was always by his side and cared for him along with his nephew Deda until the end. Eggie made numerous friends wherever he went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew him. He was a true friend and devoted family man. He leaves to mourn: His daughter Darlene Lasseter; one grandson Ron Lasseter; two step-daughters Valerie Thomas and Diane Grey; one step-son Robert Joseph; three sisters, Emma Haskins, Shirley Miles, and Diana Garris; three brothers, John, William and Robert Diggs; step-grandchildren, nieces, nephews and a host of other relatives and friends (not to forget the Lexington Market Crew).Eggie was in God's plan to be used to uplift other and to have them live up to their fullest potential. IF HE COULD HELP HE WOULD.
