

Charles Vernon Edward Dunlap Sr.

August 15, 1936 - May 14, 2018

Charles Vernon Edward Dunlap, Sr., was born on August 15, 1936 to the late Mary Frances Dunlap and Frank Bruton. He was a native of North Carolina where he attended Biscoe, North Carolina Public Schools. He was the youngest of six siblings (Sisters, Jessie and Lucille; brothers, James, John, and Harvey) who preceded him in death.

Charles accepted Jesus Christ and was baptized at an early age at Alley Grove Baptist Church. He later moved to Richmond, Virginia where he married the late Fannie Lucille Tucker and from that union three children were born.

Charles resided in Washington, D.C. where he was employed with the District of Columbia Police Department (Special Security). After leaving the D.C. Police Department, he obtained employment through the Hyatt Regency Hotel where he retired with 35 years of service.

Charles had a passion for singing. God blessed him with a melodious voice. Through singing, many were blessed by him.

Charles leaves to cherish his memory, three children, Charles Dunlap, Jr., Catherine Parham (Ray). Cynthia Dunlap; five grandchildren, Natasha Parham, Travis Parham, Catrina Parham, Christina Dunlap, and Christopher

Dunlap; four great-grandchildren;
a host of nieces, nephews and friends, to include long-life friends, Bobby Leadbetter and Margaret Robinson.
