

Charles E. Harrison

March 6, 1937 - June 9, 2007

For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten son. That whosoever believeth in Him shall not perish but, have everlasting life. Charles E. Harrison, son of the late Herbert and Ella Mae Harrison, was born March 6, 1937 in Baltimore, Maryland. After a brief illness, on Saturday, June 9, 2007, God called our beloved Charles home to reward him with his final resting place. Charles was baptized at an early age at the Zion Baptist Church by Pastor Matthew Wilkerson. He attended Baltimore City Public Schools, later married Beverly Briggs, soon after enlisted in the United States Navy. Charles, lovingly known as "Ed" and "Chop," by friends, really enjoyed family, and was very loyal to his friends. Charles showed love for all those he came in contact with but, in his own unique way. Charles also loved sports, music and he loved to sing, especially along side his family. Charles will be missed and his love for his family is appreciated in a special way. Charles leaves to cherish his memory: five children, Charles, Rhonda, Ella Mae, Troy and Leon Harrison; brother, Alfted Harrison; sister, Thelma McDaniel; sister-in-law, Mary-Ann Harrison; ten grandchildren, four great-grandchildren, two aunts, Ruth Tyree and Dora Foster; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends, who loved him as well.

“ Hi! Harrision's ! May I send my condolences to you all. Losing a dear one breaks the circle of life for us today. The time is coming when we will not worrying about dying at all as the bible say at Isa.25:8 death will be swallow up, gone. I have lost loved ones in death too and know the feeling. May all the happy times spent with Mr. Charles stay close. I hope these few words will prove to be uplifting to you all. My fellow feeling, Lillian Crosby.##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##
