

Charles E. Turner

August 8, 1921 - February 26, 2007

Charles E. Turner, affectionately known as “Boston”, was born August 9, 1921 to the late Blanche Gray and Charles W. Turner in Boston, Massachusetts. He departed this life on Monday, February 26, 2007 after a brief illness. “Grandpop,” as he was fondly called by many, moved to Philadelphia with his family where he attended school. He entered the United States Army in 1943 and served in World War II. He received a Victory Ribbon for his service in WWII and was Honorably Discharged in 1945. While stationed at Fort Meade, MD, Charles met the love of his life, Louise B. Holland and they were married in 1945. “Boston” and Louise settled and established their home in Baltimore, MD where they raised one daughter, Margaret. His devoted wife Louise preceded him in death on August 8, 1989. Charles was employed with the former Shavitz Furniture Company in Catonsville, MD (the current location of Gardiner's Furniture) for over 20 years. He retired in 1980 to relax and spend time with his wife and family. “Grandpop” enjoyed listening to jazz music and would often sit for hours listening to his music and sipping his favorite cocktail of “Granddad and coke”. In recent years, he also enjoyed traveling with his companion Marion Vessel. If you were ever around him, be assured that he had your photograph because he loved to take pictures. Charles was a wonderful, charismatic and extremely handsome gentleman who was loved and respected by everyone who knew him. His genuine love and compassion for others, his wisdom and knowledge as well as his kindhearted nature were like rare jewels. He will truly be missed by all who had the distinct pleasure of knowing him. He leaves to cherish his memory: his daughter, Margaret Butler; six grandchildren, Charles, Jr. (Petey), Edward, Reginald, Yvette, Quinton and Stephanie Butler; twelve great-grandchildren, four great-great grandchildren; devoted companion, Marion Vessel; several cousins, a host of other relatives and many friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Charles E. Turner

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ Hello ! Turner's ! May I send my condolences to you all . It has been a year since Mr.Charles circle of life was broken at almost the age of 86. Imagine what life will be like when we will be able to live forever. I am looking forward to that happening. The bible gives you allwonderful thoughts to keep close to your hearts such as Ps.46:1-2 about your creator being a REFUGE for you. May all the cherished and precious memories of Mr. Charles help to support in the times ahead.##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ To the family and friends: Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. God’s original purpose was not for us to ever die. The thought of death is heartwrenching to us and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to death. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Just imagine our loved one coming back to life in the most beautiful earthly paradise you could ever imagine! Wouldn’t it be wonderful to greet them, tears of joy running down your faces and knowing that you will never lose them in death again. Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at (Rev. 21: 3-5) of a new earth where there will be no more death. These promises have brought comfort to millions. I wish the same for you.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

---

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

---

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Please accept our condolences for the loss of your loved one. Acts 24:15 lovingly tells us "there is going to be a resurrection." When that time occurs the earth will be a peaceful paradise with no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain for many. (Revelation 21:3-5, Isaiah 25:8, Isaiah 65:17) May you receive much comfort and strength when you think about these loving promises from the Holy Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon & Joe Hill##imported-end##

---

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM