“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sympathy for the passing of your loved one. Death is indeed a difficult thing to bear, because we desire our loved ones to be here with us always. That is God's purpose as well, because he created the first man with the opportunity for eternal life. Even though Adam sinned and brought sin and death on us all, God's purpose has not changed. One day, according to Isaiah 25:8, he promises to swallow up death forever, and certainly wipe the tears from all faces. Then according to Daniel 12:2, "Many of those asleep in the ground of dust will wake up.". May the hope of seeing your loved one again in the near future bring joy to your hearts as you cherish the wonderful memories of your loved one in his happier days.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ Hi ! Lewis! I would like to send condolences to you all. It has been a little over a year since Mr. Charles circle of life was broken. Time keep moving on and we can reflect on the many wonderful things we can be thankful for that are countless. Imagine the happiness to be our when the dead are resurrected to a paradise earth where peace and joy will be forever as God's will is done on earth as it is in heaven, Mt 6:9-11. Something to look forward to.May the all the 70 years of sharing time and memories with Mr. Charles help you all on the journey of life.##imported-begin##I.C.##imported-end##
