LIFE REFLECTIONS

A Time to Live

CHARLES EDWARD FERRELL was born in Baltimore, Maryland on July 18, 1931 to Hugh Moses Ferrell and Sarah Pauline Daniel Ferrell (both deceased). Charles was the oldest son of ten children and his sister Shirley is the youngest of all. His eight siblings who preceded him in death were: Evelyn; Paul; Joseph; James; Sloane; David; Bessie; and Jessie. Charles received his education in Baltimore Public School System. He served in the United States Army and after his military service, he worked for 38 years, as a committed and loyal Millwright employee at Bethlehem Steel. He ultimately retired July 1994.

A Time to Love

Charles pursued the love of his life for five years, and on April 30, 1961, he married his beloved Gladys Adell Williams. This union was blessed with sons: Charles Moses Ferrell; Duane Edward Ferrell; and Derek Eugene Ferrell; step-son Marcell Williams. His daughter Joyce Marie Battle preceded him in death.

Charles always demonstrated compassion and love for his family and fellowman. He was the epitome of a faithful and loving husband, father and provider. He enjoyed spending time with his family, eating, watching sports & National Geographic on TV, hunting, fishing and traveling. He often spoke of his fond memories of travelling to China.

A Time to Mourn

Charles will forever be cherished and remembered by everyone whose life was touched by his kind heartedness, laughter, gentle spirit, especially cherishing his memories are: devoted wife of 55 years, Gladys Adell; children Charles, Duane (Tina daughter-in-law), Derek and step-son Marcell Williams; sister Shirley Bigelow; 17 grandchildren, 26 great-grandchildren; 2 great-great grandchildren; sisters-in-law Lillian Ferrell, Mamie Bowers and Emma Louise Wardrick; devoted goddaughter Tamika Wright, devoted family friend Angel Jones, host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
