

Charles Fields

May 11, 1947 - August 15, 2009

Charles Fields was one of thirteen children born to the late Jerry Fields and Fannie Colvin Fields on May 11, 1947 in Robeson County, North Carolina. He was called home suddenly on Saturday, August 15, 2009. Charles received his education in the Robeson County Public Schools of North Carolina. He was united in holy matrimony to Joyce E. Jackson on February 7, 1987. Together they shared five children. Throughout his adult years, he was employed at several lumber companies in Maryland, and retired from Jarvis Lumber and Steel Company in June 2009. Fondly called “Fields”, and known as a “sharp dresser with the fly hats”, he was a very kind, loving, and affectionate man. He was a man of few words and a humble spirit. He loved his wife and family dearly. Fields especially enjoyed sitting back; listening to music and watching his kids enjoy themselves. He’s quoted as saying, “Most of all, I LOVE THE LORD”! Fields was an active member of First St. Stephens Baptist Church since 1988, under the leadership of Reverend Dr. Aggie Brown, Jr. He served on the Usher Board and was a proud Gatekeeper for the Lord. He was looking forward to enjoying his retirement and traveling with his wife. In addition to his wife to cherish his precious memories, he is survived by four daughters, Cynthia, Catherine, Lokia, and Shrinda; on son, Joey; eight grandchildren; four great grandchildren; five sisters, Berlene Williams, Mary Williams and Shirley Little of Baltimore, MD, Corrain Holloway of Philadelphia PA, and Dorothy Mae Robertson of New Jersey, PA; three brothers, Rubert Colvin of North Carolina, and Otis and James Fields of Baltimore, MD; two mothers-in-law, Peggy Johnson and Mary Frances Holmes; three sons-in-law, Tony Braham, Jr., Daryl Hill, and Wadell Harris; nine brothers-in-law; five sisters-in-law; a best friend, Furman Wilson, and a host of other relatives and friends. Fields was preceded in death by three sisters, Grace, Wilhelmina and Louise, and a brother, William Jerry.

“ I would like to convey my sincere condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. The Bible teaches about a future time when all those in the memorial tombs will come out by means of a resurrection to life on a paradise earth (John5:28-29; Psalm37:11,29). May you find solace in the God of all comfort (2Cor1:3-4) and he will sustain you during this difficult time (Psalm55:22). Warmest regards.###imported-begin###C. Murphy###imported-end###

“ I would like to express my condolences to Mr. Fields' family and friends. The loss of a loved one can be painful and difficult to bear that's why the Bible call death an "enemy." But God promises to do away with that enemy and all the pain it causes, according to 1 Corinthians 15:26. Then, Daniel 12:2 states "many of those asleep in the ground of dust will wake up. Yes, these are the promises of God who cannot lie- Titus 1:2. I hope you continue to find comfort in God's Word of Truth, the Bible.###imported-begin###Valerie Johnson###imported-end###

“ I would like to extend my fellow feeling to you all. It is natural to experience sadness when death claims our dear love one. Complete reliance on the God of all comfort, 2 Cor. 1:4 will help to endure bereavement since he care, 1 Peter 5:7, for you all. Mr. Charles touch the lives of many through his 62 years of life. It will be wonderful when the resurrection come in the near future. I hope these few thoughts will be positive as time help to heal the heart and mind with the help of the helper that Jesus Christ said he was sending, the holy spirit. ##imported-begin## Lillian Crosby ##imported-end##
