

Charles Genoah Washington

March 23, 1933 - April 9, 2006

Charles G. Washington Sr. of Richmond, Virginia departed this life on Sunday, April 9, 2006 at Chippenham Hospital. Charles was born on March 23, 1933 to Margaret Washington and the late Frazier Banks in King William, Virginia. He was one of the first students to graduate from Hamilton-Holmes High School in King William County. Upon retiring after 21 years of dedicated service with the United States Navy, Charles and his family settled in Dorchester, Massachusetts. He also retired from the New England Deaconess Hospital after 20 years as a Dietary Technician. In 1990, Charles and Priscilla returned to their beloved home, Virginia. Charles was an exceptional man amongst friends and family alike. He often spent his spare time doing what he loved best fishing, cooking and hunting. Charles was a soft spoken, caring man that was loved by all. He leaves to cherish his memory, his wife, Stella Priscilla Washington; three sons, Charles, Keith and Kevin; daughter, Cheryl Washington; six grandchildren, Tyson Bell, Kevin Fussell, Pamela Bahn, Charles Washington III, Cameron and Tori Washington; great-grandson, James Bahn, and a host of devoted family and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Charles Genoah Washington

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ I offer my sympathy to the family and friends of Mr Washington. May you find comfort now and in the days to come from your memories and the promise of a resurrection noted at Acts 24:15.##imported-begin##K Adams##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ My sincere condolences to the Washington family. Death was never apart of God's original purpose. He will however remedy that with His Messianic Kingdom. May your family find comfort in this precious hope and the words found at Job 14:14##imported-begin##K. Smith##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM