Blessed Assurance

You have my deepest sympathy in the passing of Charles, your older brother. Charles had such a great spirit. He was par excellence in everything that he did. I know that he will be greatly missed by all of you, but rest assured that God has already prepared Charles heavenly resting place, within the chambers of his own heart.

What a truly blessed place to be.

I will continue to remember all of you in my prayers; praying that God will bless each and everyone of you with his loving care.
