

Charles H. English

October 6, 1946 - August 12, 2006

CHARLES HUGHES ENGLISH, JR., son of the late Charles English, Sr., and survived by Julia English, was born on October 6, 1946 in Baltimore, Maryland. On Saturday, August 12, 2006, he slipped away to rest in the arms of Jesus forever at the University of Maryland Hospital. He grew up in Baltimore and was educated by the Archdiocese of Maryland. He graduated in 1966. He was the loving and devoted husband of Mary H. English. To this union they each brought six children. Charles was a very caring and loyal person and faithful friend to all who knew him. He worked as an incinerator operator for Baltimore Stericycle Medical Waste Facility (formerly known as B.F.I.) for seventeen years until his untimely passing. Charles was a very quiet and passionate man, who loved to surround himself with children. He always had words of wisdom and encouragement for all his children and grandchildren. His spirit will always remain in the hearts of those who knew and loved him. Husband, father, brother, grandfather, friend, Charles has touched the hearts of many and his memory will be forever cherished by: his devoted wife, Mary English; mother, Julia English; four daughters, Jacqueline English, Dorothea English, Ruth Evans and Leticia Buckner; two sons, Charles English III and Robert Mallette; brother, Bobby English; three sisters, Dorothy Mangos, Arneta Boyd and Carrie Curry; twelve grandchildren, Marcus, Maurice, Cierra, LaDonna, Warren, Darien, Shadé (Desmond), Shakia, Tia, Imani, Bobby and Dymond; great-grandson, Desmond Jr.; a host to loving nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.
