

Charles H. Richardson,

December 28, 1923 - October 23, 2007

CHARLES HENRY RICHARDSON, JR., affectionately known as “Big Charles,” was born on December 28, 1923, to the late Charles H. Richardson, Sr. and Mollie Goldring Richardson. Charles' childhood was spent in Towson, Maryland where he attended elementary school. He later graduated from Carver High and Morgan College (now Morgan State University). While a matriculate at Morgan he met Helen Prann, and they were married on November 22, 1952. Charles worked for the United States Postal Service and also played in its band. He was employed there until he retired. Charles, a devoted husband and father, is survived by: his loving wife of fifty-five years, Helen; a son, Garry; a daughter, Beverly; two grandsons, Tyreek and Quamonta Richardson; sister, Dorothy Riley; many loving nieces, great-nieces, nephews, great-nephews and cousins.

Tribute Wall

“ Charles H. Richardson,

---

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ Hello ! Richardson's ! I am so sorry for you lost of Mr. Charles recent at the age of almost 84 years old. Life circle was broken. Our heavenly father cares about you all and is there to give comfort in all the tribulations that may come in these last days 2 Cor.1:3, 1 Peter5:7. You can be confidence that the future will be better for mankind , being able to live on a paradise earth forever. It will be wonderful never worrying about old age, sickness, eye and hearing problems,canes and walker, wheel chairs, etc. Imagine the dead loved ones being resurrected and the great JOY to be had. May all the cherished times spent with Mr. Charles lessen the pain of losing him every day.##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##

---

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM