

Charles Emmitt Hall

July 17, 1930 - July 30, 2014

Charles Emmitt Hall, Jr., age 84, entered into eternal rest on July 30, 2014. He was born July 17, 1930, to the late Deacon Emmitt and Deaconess Carrie Hall.

Charlie as he was known, graduated from Virginia Randolph High School and later went to trade school to become an electrician. Soon after, he served in the military during the Korean War. He was given an honorable discharge as a corporal.

He was employed as a driver with Phipps and Byrd whom later changed their name to Industrial Chemical. He retired from there after 35 years of service.

Charlie was an avid baseball fan. He spent many afternoons at Parker Field watching the Richmond Braves. He loved to sing and march as though he was still in the army. He was a member of St. James Lodge #300 PHA for over 25 years. He had not missed a Masters or Wardens meeting of the 26th Masonic District in 15 years. He loved his family.

Charlie was preceded in death by his sisters, Thelma, Alice, Edna, Helen and brother James Hall. He is survived by his wife Martha of 48 years, one son Alonzo, two daughters; Elizabeth Monroe, Denise Jones (Orlando), two granddaughters, Chastity and Lanika Monroe; one sister, Doris Somerville, one brother, Willie Hall of Fort Worth, Texas, two sisters-in-law, Mary Hall and Lena Stovall, two brothers-in-law, John (Bessie) and Robert; a host of nieces, nephews, one devoted niece Cherri and friends.
