

Charles Henry Chase

July 2, 1919 - June 29, 2009

CHARLES HENRY CHASE, son of the late Annie and John Chase, was born on July 2, 1919 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life suddenly on Monday, June 29, 2009. Charles attended the Baltimore City Public Schools. After leaving school, he worked as a Laborer until he was drafted into the United States Army at the age of twenty-three. He served as a Sanitary Technician during World War II. While serving in the military he received several awards such as the Good Conduct Medal, American Theater Service Ribbon, Asiatic Pacific Theater Service Ribbon, Philippine Liberation Ribbon World War II Victory Ribbon. Upon leaving the military, he worked as an Arabber with his brothers. Charles later worked at Little Potts Furniture Warehouse until his retirement. Charles was united in Holy Matrimony with Delores Moody in 1959 until her death. He enjoyed many trips to Atlantic City with his wife, family and friends. He leaves to mourn and cherish his love and memory: one brother, Herbert E. Chase; one son, Rodell Moody; one daughter-in-law, Nannie V. Moody; a devoted great-granddaughter, Tea Harris; four grandchildren, seven great-grandchildren and two great-great-grandchildren; a devoted niece, Jacqueline Trusty; and two devoted nephews, "Mike" and "Dickie." He also leaves four devoted friends, Jessie Williams ("Mr. Booker"), Mark Ford, Timothy Brown and Robert Alston; a host of other relatives and friends.

“ *I would to express my fellow feeling in your recent loss . Mr. Charles lived a very long time, 90 years, the bible say at Ps.90:10, " Some person would live for 70 years and others 80 years".It will be wonderful when death will be a thing of the past. I am so looking forward to that and I know you all are too since we all are affected by dying. May the many many cherish memories with Mr. Charles keep sustaing you all in the days ahead.##imported-begin##lillian
