

Charles Henry Duvall

July 3, 1936 - September 16, 2005

CHARLES HENRY DUVALL was born on July 3, 1936 in Granite, Maryland, the fifth child of the late Luther and Gertrude Duvall. Charles received his grade school education in Granite, Maryland and high school education at Banneker High School in Catonsville, Maryland. Charles gave his life to Christ at a young age. Charles was baptized in the Catholic Church. He loved to visit various churches. Charles was employed at Bennett's Mayonnaise Co. for some time. He also worked as a cement layer on the construction of the Jones Falls Expressway (Rt. 83). Charles was in the United States Military. He served his full term and was discharged with an honorable discharge. Charles was a kind and loving person. He had a heart of gold. He loved to help out any way he could, always willing to do all kinds of odd jobs for you. He loved telling you stories about his life growing up. He always had an ear and heart to silence whatever may be the problem you were having. He always tried to encourage you. He always had a kind word for you, like "Honey" or "Sweetheart" or "That's my baby" or "Baby Sis." He had a love for children as was shown with all of his many nieces and nephews and all of the great and great-great-nieces and -nephews. He leaves to mourn: his two sisters, Margaret Luvinia Griggs and Mary Patterson; one sister-in-law, Sylvia Duvall; one brother-in-law, Jack Griggs; and a host of nieces, nephews, other family and friends.

“ To the family of Charles Duval, my deepest condolences. May you cherish his memory. The Bible has words of comfort. At 1 Cor. 15:26 states, "As the last enemy, death is to be brought to nothing." God has promised to do away with death and the pain that it causes. May these words be of comfort to the family.##imported-begin##Sean##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
