

Charles Morton Hunter

September 15, 1918 - September 8, 2010

Charles Morton Hunter, the oldest son of the late Charles E. Hunter and Virginia Johnson was born on September 15, 1918 in Glen Arm, Maryland. He departed this life on September 8, 2010 at home surrounded by family.

Charles was educated in the Baltimore Public School System. He also, served in the United States Navy reserves in 1942 where he received four medals and was honorably discharged in 1946. Charles moved to Washington D.C. where he enrolled at Howard University in which he majored in Engineering. While receiving his education during the day, he worked full-time at night at the United States Post Office.

After college Charles was later employed by Pepsi Cola Bottling Company for over 25 years where he retired in 1990.

He worshiped at Metropolitan United Methodist Church in which he walked every Sunday with his polished suit and bible in hand. For the last 10years he attended The Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's Witness. He enjoyed reading his Bible along with the Awake and Watchtower magazines.

Charles will always be remembered as a quiet mild mannered man who enjoyed family gatherings, gardening, and he sure loved some good food.

Charles leaves to mourn his sisters Helen Gwynn, June Carter, Hazel Willingham (brother-in-law Alfred Willingham) Mary D. Coleman, and Carolyn Johnson one brother William Hunter. Preceded in death his sisters Virginia Hunter, and Ruth Williams, his Brothers Edward Hunter, Joseph Hunter, Russell Hunter and Nathaniel Hunter and a host of devoted nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.

“ To the family of Mr. Charles Hunter, I wish to express my sympathy for your huge loss. Out of all the pain we ever suffer as humans, the pain we experience during a death 'stings' far worse than all the others combined. It knows no boundaries and keeps no time. In my effort to comfort your family, I would like to share a scripture from God's Word. Revelation 21:3,4 says, "With that I heard a loud voice from the throne say, "Look! The tent of God is with mankind, and he will reside with them, and they will be his peoples. And God himself will be with them. And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." No doubt we all look forward to this wonderful time. I will keep your family in my prayers.
