

Charles H. Jackson

May 1, 1952 - February 11, 2014

CHARLES HUNTER JACKSON, son of the late Joseph Hunter and Fannie Jackson was born on May 1, 1952 in Baltimore, Maryland. Charles was the sixth child of eight children. His brother Royston preceded him in death. Charles began his spiritual journey on February 11, 2014, shortly after being diagnosed with lung cancer.

Charles received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System. He was employed with the Sparrows point Shipyard for about three years and then the Baltimore City Department of Sanitation where he retired from after approximately thirty years of employment.

In 1971 he met Monica Scott whom he married in 1977. Charles was a big fan of western movies and various types of music with Tupac being his favorite artist.

Charles had a multitude of friends of all ages and will sincerely be missed by all. Being a devoted family man and friend, there was nothing he would not do for friends or family in their time of need (WE WORE HIM OUT).

Shortly before his passing Charles accepted Islam as his faith, and his wish was to be laid to rest accordingly.

Charles leaves to cherish his loving memory – his wife, Monica (pudding); five daughters, Glenda, Adriane, Swiyyah, Mary and Chaney; one son, Ozie; three brothers, Stewart, Linwood and Cornelius; three sisters, Shelley, Vivian and Juanita; two aunts, Mary Ellen Dean and Louise James; three brothers-in-law; two sisters-in-law; two sons-in-law; twenty-two grandchildren; nine great-grandchildren; nieces, nephews and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ *To the family,
I am deeply sorry for the loss of your dear loved one. Death can be hard to cope with but fortunately we can draw comfort from the scriptures. One particular scripture is found at Isaiah 25:8, which says in part, "He (God) will swallow up death forever." One day soon, God will not only get rid of death, but He will also resurrect our dead loved ones. May this promise bring you comfort and peace during this time of need.*

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. Acts 24:15 lovingly declares "There is going to be a resurrection." The Bible gives a real hope of being reunited with your dead loved ones. May you receive much comfort and strength from the resurrection hope.
