“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of Mr. Charles J. Rogers Jr. Acts 24:15 lovingly reveals: "There is going to be a resurrection." First Corinthians chapter 15, verse 26 further tells us that our "last enemy death" is to be "destroyed." May you receive much comfort and strength every time you think about these wonderful promises found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Mrs. Hill##imported-end##

“ My heart goes out to you and your family. Its a very difficult thing, dealing with a death. But you have to remember...death is just a doorway. He will be missed but thank God for Jesus. Because of him we will see our loved ones again and live in eternity. Yes...it will be hard but it will get easier with time. Just remember to keep his memories alive. “ I hope that you receive much comfort and the strength to help you to cope with the loss of your loved one. Death is such a bitter pill to swallow , and it's especially hard when we lose a loved one so very young with their whole life ahead of them. I know, because I lost my only son when he was 29. Jehovah God had many upbuilding promises recorded in the bible to help us to get through these difficult times. For instance there are many resurrections recorded in the bible; such as the one at Mark 5:38-43. A little 12-year old girl had died and all the people who loved her were weeping over her death. Jesus Christ came to her home and raised the little girl back to life. The bible says that her parents were beside themselves with great ecstasy at seeing their daughter alive again. Jesus also brought his good friend Lazarus back to life after he had been dead for 4 days. These accounts can be a comfort to us, because Jehovah lets us know that many many more will be raised back to life in the future resurrection which will take place soon. Jehovah speaks of them as being in the memorial tombs, and one day they will hear his son's voice calling them back from the grave, John 5:28,29 May this wonderful promise be a source of comfort to you to help you to cope until that wonderful day of salvation arrives.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
