

Charles W. Kane

July 19, 1921 - October 3, 2013

Charles W. Kane, son of the late Wilbur and Lucy Kane , was born on July 19, 1921 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on October 3, 2013 after a lengthy illness. God went sent his angel with a message “He who began a good work in will carry it to completion until the day of Jesus Christ”

He received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System, later serving in the United States Army and a vital part of the “Red Ball Express” Under General George S. Patton during W W II., where he received many Medals of Honor.

He married the (late) Helen J. Hutchins, and out of this union twelve (12) children were born. But even after receiving those honors as he could so proudly say, My best rewards in this life was my loving wife Helen and my children.

He worked for George P. Mahoney Construction Company for many years as cement finisher (the best of the best) by trade . “Big Charles” as he was so affectionately known by family and friends, was always eager to lend a helping hand to anyone in need, readily willing to share, especially his “War Stories”.

He leaves to mourn: fives sons Charles W. Kane. Jr., John Hutchins, Sr Reginald Kane Michael Kane, Andre Kane, seven daughters, Arnetta Gibson,

Juanita Kane -Ross Rita Loney, Sharon Stewart, Sylvia Glover, Shelly Kane and adopted daughter Michele Dean. Twenty five forty eight great grandchildren, one brother Edward Kane, four sisters, Marion Morris, Whitaker, Regina Mella, Catherine Benson, and a host of other relatives and friends. He was preceded in death by his wife Helen Kane, one Algie Kane, one grandson Charles Loney, Jr., one granddaughter Octavia Stewart, two brothers Herbert and William Kane and one sister Doris Wilson

“ In deepest sympathy to the bereaved family: The Psalms says Our Father God healeth the broken hearted and bindeth up their wounds. May you take comfort in knowing that life does not end with our earthly death. Our Father sacrificed his only son so that we can live eternally in heaven with God the Father our creator. You can see him again if you believe that Jesus is our Savior. Love, Norvator Robinson a neighbor of Arnetta Gibson
