“ Shaunyetta - I'm so grateful you and your dad had grown closer this past year. It's wonderful that he was able to see what a beautiful, intelligent, motivated young woman you've become. Through his illness you were able to see how love can come at any stage in life and still be as strong as always. You proved that with your devotion to him, by visiting often, watching out for him, telling him stories about the kids, making him smile, etc. You'll understand the pain that others may feel when they're losing a loved one and that may help you be an even better nurse. You are so amazing, so strong and your dad was so incredibly proud of you - I'm glad that you know that. I'm so sorry he's gone but he'll always be in your heart!! Love ya, Carrie##imported-begin##Carrie##imported-end##
