

Charles Lecato

April 4, 1917 - January 6, 2003

Charles T. LeCato Jr. was the only son of the late Arnetta Haynes and Charles T. LeCato Sr., born on April 4, 1917. He spent his childhood in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on January 6, 2003 and entered into eternal rest. Charles T. LeCato was educated at Frederick Douglass High School in 1935. He was a devoted member of Bethel A.M.E. Church. He married Vera J. Rice on December 3, 1941. This union lasted 52 years until God called her home. From this union was born a daughter, Vivian LeCato. The Domino Sugar Refinery employed Charles for fifteen years. From there he went to work for the Federal Post Office for forty years, from which he retired. After retiring he enjoyed watching baseball, talking and joking with old friends and reminiscing about the past. Charles always had a smile for strangers and was known for his laughter. He loved to dance, sing and tell jokes. His loved ones will miss him. He leaves to cherish his memory: his devoted daughter, Vivian LeCato; sister, Venus Armstrong; granddaughters, Dana McCready and Nina Molock; great granddaughter, Zoe Molock; grandson-in-law, George McCready; niece, Janice Coleman; other relatives and friends.
