

Charles F. Lewis Jr.

November 18, 1963 - May 18, 2018

CHARLES FRANKLIN LEWIS, JR. (Chippy), son of Charles Franklin Lewis Sr. and Joyce Lewis (Hayes-Hill), was born on November 18, 1963. He departed this life on May 18, 2018.

He received his education within the Baltimore City Public School System; he also attended Community College Baltimore County/Essex. He always worked within the poultry industry.

He was a member of United Brethren For Christ Church of the Living God. He accepted Jesus Christ as his Lord and Savior at an early age at the Rose of Sharon Baptist Church in Jessup, MD. He recommitted his life at United Brethren for Christ Church of the Living God.

He married Charla E. Dorsey and from that union one daughter was born, Charla Sierra Lewis (Barnes).

Chippy was an easy going person. He never met a stranger... always had a smile, loved animals, was very friendly and had the gift of making lifelong friends with everyone he met. Chippy was very handy. He would take on projects and didn't stop until completion. Chippy was well known by everyone for his sense of humor, wittiness, kind words, and wisdom for everyone he talked to.

He is preceded in death by Charles Franklin Lewis Sr.; a brother, Derrick Carroll; and a sister, Denise Alston. He leaves to cherish his memory: daughter, Charla S. Lewis (Barnes); son-in-law, Thomas F. Barnes; mother, Joyce S. Hill (Tyrone Hill); granddaughter, Jada L. Lewis; three brothers, Kevin Seawell, Antione Lewis and Jamar Lewis; sister, Jantra Presco; four goddaughters, Fatimah Hall, Patra, Savannah, and Serenity Turner; a devoted stepmother, Shirley Lewis; special friends, Pat Turner and Lois Bennet; a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
