

Charles J. Little

February 9, 1945 - April 9, 2011

On February 9, 1945, Charles J. Little was born. “ Young” as he was Prominently known took a course on his flight and departed this life, after a lengthy illness, at Bayveiw Hospital in Baltimore. He was the fifth child of the late Alexander and Bella Little.

Young received his education in Troy, North Carolina. Young relocated to Baltimore in 1968. Baltimore is where he met and married the love of his life, the late Evon (Briggs) Little. Young had six children.

Young was a dedicated working man. He diligently worked at Continental Can Company, Maryland Glass Company and retired wit an outstanding 28 years at Baltimore Gas & Electric Company.

When reflecting on Young's life, we remember his easy smile and a laugh that warmed whatever room he entered. Even when face with the challenges of illness, Young maintained a positive spirit.

Young's brother Alexander and his cousin William were his hanging out buddies. Young had many hobbies and interests. He loved riding his Harley Davidson motorcycle. He enjoyed fishing. He adored” oldies but goodies” music. But most of all, Young was passionate about family gatherings. He was a devoted family man.

Young was predeceased by his wife, Evon (Briggs) Little; his son, Todd Little; his parents, Alexander and Bella Little; his brother, Fred Little; and his brother-in-law, William Robinson. Young leaves to cherish his memories: five children, Katrina, Charles, Tausha, Alex and Aisha; Six grandchildren, Latavia, Sada, Charles, Jr., Tyronae, Nashay, and Alex, Jr.; seven siblings, Robert Lee (Noni), James, Ruth Ann, Alexander, Jacqueline (Artillia), Richard (Cynthia) and Marcella; one uncle, A.L. (Edna); Two aunts, Winnie and Celia Mae; and a host of other relatives and friends.
