

Charles M. Barnes

July 24, 1942 - September 12, 2005

Charles Milton Barnes, son of George W. Barnes (deceased) and Willie (Acker) Barnes was born on July 24, 1942 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on September 12, 2005. He was educated in the Baltimore City Public Schools, and served in the U.S. Army. He is survived by his wife, Alice; sons, Donovan and Dennis Barnes; mother, Willie Barnes; brother, Donald Parks; sisters-in-law, Burnae Parks and Shirley Barnes; daughters, Dionne Johnson, Donna Fooks, Keyasia Fooks and Naida Bouie; son-in-law, James Johnson; grandchildren, Stephanie, Dennis (Smiling Jack), Deondre Johnson, Deonte Johnson and Donte Ricks; nieces and nephews, Jasmine and Miles Parks, Janice Holmes, Cornell, James, Michael, Charles Gilliam, and a host of others. Charles' older brother and sister (George and Argent) preceded him in death. Charles was a very outgoing person and loved to talk about everything under the sun; to the point where he had been nicknamed "Preach" by friends and associates. Charles was also a gifted artist and pastry chef. Although Charles struggled with addictions for the majority of his life, he had come to know Jesus and was saved. He would readily talk about this and was adamant that his grandchildren, nieces and nephews not fall into the same trap. He loved his grandchildren and nieces and nephews intensely, and was always encouraging them to always be the best they could be. Charles will be missed by his many friends and associates, particularly around his major haunt, Lexington Market; but would want all to know that "Jesus Saves".

“ Please accept my sincere condolences. May you all find comfort from "...the Father of tender mercies and the God of comfort..." who promises that soon there will be a resurrection of those who fall asleep in death. 2 Corinthians 1:3,4/John 5:28,29##imported-begin##L. Coleman##imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends , I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at John 5:28,29 where Jesus says "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." It is my hope that this scripture comforts you.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“Death is a harsh and devastating interruption to life a precious gift of God. Yet in most of our lives today we see death as our final eventuality accepted by many. However our heavenly father Jehovah God, the giver of life promises that one day in our near future death will be no more. As Revelations 21:3-4 states “God will wipe every tear from our eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor out cry nor pain be anymore.” How truly happy we all will be not to ever be threaten by death because it is Jehovah God’s promise to us according to Psalms 37:29 for the righteous ones to live forever on earth. Another hopeful awaiting thought in our future is all those who have lost their lives to death or the lost of our love ones, Jehovah God says according to John 5:28,29 all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus voice and come out. Yes these ones will live again! We all can hold fast to this because Titus 1:2 states: upon the basis of hope of everlasting life, which God, who cannot lie promised before times long lasting. Such a comforting thought to know our having life forever was always Jehovah God’s promised purpose for us. My deepest sympathy to the family.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
