“ When a child dies, it's particularly hard for both parents. The bible acknowledges the bitter grief that a mother feels (2kings 4:27), and the bereaved father feels (2samuel 18:33). But please take comfort in the promise at Acts 24:15 of the resurrection hope for the righteous and the unrighteous. Little Charles will be able to play ball again, and grow up in a paradise earth mentioned at Rev 21:3,4. I'm so sorry for your loss.##imported-begin##Gonsalves##imported-end##

“ I would like to express my sincere condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. The Bible teaches about a future time when all those in the memorial tombs will come out by means of a resurrection to life on a paradise earth (John 5:28-29; Psalm37:11,29). May you find comfort in God and the many wonderful promises contained in his word the Bible because Titus1:2 assures us that he cannot lie. Warmest regards.##imported-begin##C. “ My heart goes out to the family. And God shall wipe away all tears from thier eyes: and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain; for the former things are passed away. “ To the family, Please accept my sincere sympathy. It is truly unfortunate that we have to experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. This is a sorrow that God promises will one day be no more (Rev 21:3,4). As you await the fulfillment of this promise may you find comfort from, "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who will comfort you in all your tribulations."
