Also, 1 Corinthians 15:26 reveals that our enemy death will be destroyed. “ Charles Maryland Mitchell was my biological father. He was born to Callie and Jessie Mitchell in North Carolina. He married Beulah in April, 1963 and they had three children: Robin, Charles and Donna. He is survived by his wife, Beulah; three children; six grandchildren; one great grandchild; his sister, Rosalie; and a host of nieces and nephews. Although Charles and Beulah have been separated for thirty years, they never divorced. Charles has not seen his first family in quite some time, but his presence in their lives had been at times sought and desired. We did not know that he had left this life, and wished that an attempt to contact us had been made. I offer my condolences to his loved ones, and welcome contact.##imported-begin##Donna Mitchell Coleman##imported-end##

“ Hello ! Mitchell's ! May I extend condolences to you all. Time can help to heal the heart and mind. It has been a year since Mr. Mitchell circle of was broken. Death gives us the time to reflect on life and how we can make a good name with our creator . In this life things happen that sometimes we can not control and change, however we all want to be happy and enjoy life as Ps. 145:16 say .The resurrection is a wonderful because the dead can hear Jesus voice and come to life again, John 5:28. I am so looking forward to that because I too have loss dear love ones and miss them too.May the gift of memories help you all with the loss of your dear love one, Mr. Charles.##imported-begin##lillian Crosby##imported-end##
