“ I would like to express my deepest condolences to your family on your loss. I share a part of your loss because Charles was a friend and a co-worker. We worked together at the Marriott and it was indeed a pleasure to have known Charles. Charles and I shared many Bible thoughts together on many occasions and I know that he truly had love for God. May God be with your family in this time of sorrow and grief and always remeber the scripture at Revelation 21: 4, And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away. There will be one day when all of death and pain will be gone because Jehovah God promises us that.##imported-begin##Yolanda Johnson##imported-end##

“ I wish to extend my sincere condolences for the loss of Mr. Scott. Isaiah 26:19 lovingly informs us: "Thy dead live, their bodies will rise again. They that sleep in the earth will awake and shout for joy...The earth will bring those long dead to birth again."-The New English Bible. May you receive much comfort and strength every time you think about this wonderful resurrection hope found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Mrs. Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ I send my heartfelt condolences to the family of my dear friend Charses. I knew Charles when we went to junior high school together. He was such a nice guy, and I am so sorry that he lost his life. I pray that your family recieves much comfort to help you to cope. Even thogh death is so devastating we can take comfort in the hope of the ressurection. Very soon, the bible lets us know that all sicknes and deaath will be done away with forever. Isaiah 33:24 foretold that "No resident will say, "I am sick." Also 1st Cor 15:26 tells us, "As the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing. "Then one day Charles will open his eyes again, because at John 11:25 Jesus said, "I am the ressurection and the life. "Everyone exercising faith in me; even though he dies, will come to life." So dear family please put your faith and trust in all of God"s wonderful promises, because they will without fail come true.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
