

Charles McGil Jackson

January 1, 1920 - December 13, 2002

Charles McGil Jackson a.k.a. "Jack", son of the late Charles and Martha Jackson was born on January 1, 1920 in Baltimore, Maryland. He was the brother of two sisters, Ellen R. Owens and late Clark E. Garnes. On Friday, December 13, 2002, Charles departed this life. Charles was a graduate of Carver Vocational Technical High School, majoring as a Master Tailor and Craftsman. Although Charles did not work in his field of expertise, he was very talented. He also was a certified watch repairman. Charles met and courted Ruth Stuard; whom he loved and married on December 25, 1940. Out of this union two children were born, the late Charles McGil Jackson, Jr. and Sandra Elrica. Charles was a World War II Veteran and was stationed on a naval ship as Chief Chef to the Captain. He was also employed by Western Electric as Head Inspector for over thirty years until his retirement in 1982. After Ruth's death, Charles later met and engaged in a life-long relationship with Ms. Esther Chainey, a devoted and loving companion until his death. Charles enjoyed all kinds of sports, he also loved jazz and being with family and friends. He always had a good sense of humor, even when he was sick. He could keep you laughing all day with his jokes. He was a very generous and kindhearted person, and he enjoyed life to the fullest. Charles was loved and cared for by all his family and friends. Charles leaves to mourn: his daughter, Sandra E. Russell; his granddaughter, Andrea A. Russell-Cooper; his great-granddaughter, Arianna A. Russell-Cooper; five grandsons, Michael A., Darren Q., Darryl C., Charles K. and Andre H. Jackson; nephew, Ricco E.

Garnes; sister, Ellen E. Owens and Charles and Esther extended family of five daughters, Vernae Quarles, Valerie, Anthony, Althea Chainey, Debbie Chainey and Wanda Chainey; great-nieces and great-nephews, and a host friends.
