

Charles Melvin Harris

August 21, 1926 - July 3, 2004

Charles Melvin Harris, Jr. was born on August 21, 1926 in Baltimore MD. to the late Charles and Mary Belle Harris. He was suddenly called home on July 3, 2004. Charles was one of eight children, three who preceded him in death: Llewellyn Harris, Wayman Taylor, Vera Jenkins and his granddaughter, Jenise Harris. He was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. After graduating from High School, Charles enlisted in the United States Army where he received an honorable discharge. Years later he was joined in Holy matrimony to Beatrice Latham on October 20, 1963. Charles was fondly known as “Eggy” among his childhood friends and “Junior” by his family members. It was only his dear and devoted wife Bea who called him by his given name Charles. Everyone who met him was touched by his unique sense of humor. Charles’ professional career was with the Federal Government where he worked for several different agencies. He finally retired in 1985 as a Master Plumber for General Services Administration, where he was known as a very hard worker. Even with his many responsibilities, he returned to school and graduated from Baltimore Community College in 1972 with an AA degree in Urban Development. His true passion and dedication in life was to serve and help others. As a life long member of Sharp Street Memorial United Methodist Church, he faithfully served on the Board of Trustees for 12 years and later served as the advisor. He also was a member of the United Methodist Men and sang on the Chancel Choir for 25 years. He was always available to lend a helping hand whenever needed and was one of the “Four Musketeers: who worked very hard on the maintenance of the church. He leaves to mourn his wife of 41 years, Beatrice; two sons, Darryl P. and Charles M. Harris, III; daughter-in-law, Donna Harris; two grandchildren, Charesha and Domeniq Harris; four sisters, Margaret Buchanan, Ruth Harris, Bettie Mack, Brenda Taylor and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

“ Hello Family & Friends , I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at John 5:28,29 where Jesus says "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." May you be comforted by this scripture.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son Jesus Christ have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future and our loved ones who have lost their life to our enemy death.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
