

Charles Anthony Morning

June 22, 1963 - September 15, 2017

Charles Anthony Morning of Plainfield, NJ transitioned from this world on September 15, 2017. He was born in Plainfield on June 22, 1963 to the late Frank Morning and Delores E. Johnson Morning. He was the second of three children. Charles was preceded in death by his parents.

In spite of being plagued by different illnesses throughout his life, Charles was a fiercely independent person. In 2002, Charles joined Shiloh Baptist Church in Plainfield. His pastor noted how much he enjoyed reading his Bible.

He spent some of his early summers in Charles City County visiting grandparents, aunts, uncles and other relatives. During this time he was affectionately called Charlie Wooster.

Charles was educated in the Plainfield public school system and was graduated from Plainfield High School in 1983. After graduation, he worked for Roy Rogers and became a manager at Burger King. Like his mom, Charles believed in learning and in 2003 he attended Union County College.

Charles loved his family and especially spending time with his niece and nephews. He also enjoyed watching wrestling and The Jeffersons, listening to Motown music and eating. His favorite foods included macaroni and cheese, BBQ chicken and collard greens - then he'd top off dinner with a dessert and a snack later on.

He leaves to treasure his memories two sisters, Connie Morning Johnson and devoted brother-in-law, Vincent Johnson-both of Plainfield, NJ., Valerie Morning Jennings-Richmond, VA.; one niece, Octavia Johnson; two nephews (spouse), Christopher Morning (Hope), Kyle Johnson; one great-niece, Arielle Morning; six aunts (spouse), Lillie Mae Wilson, Estelle Cotman, Florence Gary, Beatrice Smith (Joe), Barbara Otey, Shirley Crump; one uncle, John Morning; five step brothers and sisters and their families, John, Jerry, Frank (deceased) and Anna Morning, Barbara Morning Hendrson-all of Denver, CO.; and a host of cousins, other relatives and friends.
