

Charles A Page

December 25, 1945 - October 17, 2016

Charles Andrew Page, began his journey on December 25, 1945. Preceding him in death were his parents Charles and Dorothy Page. He departed this life suddenly on October 17, 2016.

“Little Charles” as he was fondly known by many, was born in Baltimore, Maryland. He received his education at St. Peter Claver School and the Baltimore City Public Schools. His spiritual growth was nourished through the ministries of St. Peter Claver where he was baptized.

Charles’ parents’ home on Belle Avenue became the frequent gathering place for activities with family and friends! Charles was front and center with a story; if you had time to listen. He enjoyed dancing, playing games, and eating delicious soul food. His passion for music included jazz and rhythm and blues, and especially Motown Sounds. Charles loved and was very proud of his two sons. He had a twinkle in his eyes when speaking of his beloved grand children.

After graduating from high school, Charles pursued training in The Job Corps. Charles was employed at the Baltimore City Sanitation Department where he retired in early 2000. Because of the strong work ethic taught by his parents, he was a devoted employee.

His gifts of life, laughter, and love leave a special legacy for his family to cherish. His memories will continue on through his sons; Charles Jr., and Keisby Page; grandchildren; Zyona, Janara, Charlia, Ke'Ara, and Janae, a special sister-in-law; Jennifer Smith, and a host of other family members and friends.
