

Charles Paylor

February 13, 1935 - December 9, 2015

Charles Paylor, the son of the late Neaton and Fannie Lee Paylor, was born February 23, 1935 and was called home to be with the Lord on December 9, 2015 after a short illness.

He was educated in Pearson County, North Carolina and at an early age. He accepted Jesus in his life at Mill Hill Baptist Church in Roxboro, North Carolina. He continued his life for the Lord when he moved to Baltimore. In the early 1970s, he joined the new Shiloh Baptist Church where he continued until his health failed.

Charles was a construction worker for local 194 up until his retirement. After retirement, he took up other activities to pass the time such as picking up scrap metal, talking on the phone, cooking and watching his favorite television shows, 'Let's make a Deal' and 'The Price is right'.

He leaves to mourn: six children, Charles Terry (Philadelphia), Neatom Paylor, Candace Paylor Walston, Kirk Paylor, Cynthia Paylor (Philadelphia) and Bryant Paylor of Baltimore; his two sisters, Jessie Jeffers (Baltimore) and Elizabeth Brown (Philadelphia); grandchildren, great-grandchildren, and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
