

Charles Royster, Jr.

April 3, 1941 - September 29, 2014

CHARLES ROYSTER JR., departed this life on September 29, 2014 at the Parham Healthcare and Rehabilitation Center in Henrico, Virginia.

Born on April 3, 1941 in Durham County, North Carolina, he attended Dunbar High School in Baltimore, Maryland before settling in Richmond, Virginia where he worked at Lucent Technologies as an inspector until retiring in 1996. After retiring Charles attended J. Sargent Reynolds Community College where he took several computer classes.

Charles proudly served his country in the United States Marine Corps Reserves. Following his military service he was united in marriage to the love of his life, Mary Spencer on November 29, 1974.

Charles loved most his family, friends and bowling. He competed in numerous bowling tournaments across the country and won many awards. He was also a huge sports fan and loved the Baltimore Ravens and Orioles.

Charles leaves to cherish his memory; a loving and devoted wife, Mary, a brother, Robert (Cheryl), seven brothers-in-law, fourteen sisters-in-law, nieces, nephews, and a host of relatives and friends.
