

Charles L. Russell

February 23, 1936 - September 9, 2015

Charles Leroy Russell, son of the late Charles and Lillian Russell was born February 23, 1936 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed from this life on September 9, 2015, after a brief illness.

Charles, lovingly known as "Shuggy" and "Uncle Charles", was educated in the Baltimore City Public Schools, attending Dunbar High School. His favorite subject was History. Charles retired from the Baltimore Sun Paper after 20 years of service.

Charles loved to be with his family especially his nieces and nephews. He enjoyed his solitary time watching movies. He was well known for his catch phrases such as, "All shut eyes are not asleep" and "All sickness is not unto death".

Charles was preceded in death by: his stepmother, Lula Mae Russell; three sisters, Lillian Mitchell, Ellen Baird, and Myrtle Russell and three brothers, Gregory Russell, Louis Russell and Henry Russell.

Charles leaves to mourn; two children, three sisters (Arline Pledger, Janet Russell, Jackie Mabry), his devoted nieces (Brenda Pledger, Amy Arthur), and a host of other nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.
