

Charles H. Shepperson Sr.

February 16, 1930 - October 28, 2017

Charles Henry Shepperson Sr. was born on February 16, 1930 in Prince Edward County, Virginia to Martha Shepperson and Sim Redd.

While receiving his education at Prince Edward County Public Schools in Prince Edward County, Virginia, he accepted Christ at an early age. After public school, Charles would go on to enlist and serve in the United States Army for several years. After leaving the service, Charles moved to Baltimore, Maryland. It was here that he gained employment as a welder for a construction company. He would continue this line of work until he retired. He enjoyed talking and pointing out the many bridges and high rises in which he worked on in the city of Baltimore.

Charles made numerous friends wherever he went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew him. He was an avid fisherman who loved baseball, wrestling, and football. "GO RAVENS". He was a long-term resident of the Jay Van Story Senior Apartments.

On Saturday October 28, 2017 following a brief illness at the Good Samaritan Hospital in Baltimore, Maryland, Charles entered into eternal rest. He is preceded in death by his parents Martha Shepperson and Sim Redd; and son Charles Henry Shepperson Jr.

He leaves to cherish his memory: two devoted daughters, Rosa Shepperson Brown (James Edward) of Glen Allen, Virginia and Marjorie Harrison of Baltimore, Maryland; son, Mark A. Shepperson of Baltimore, Maryland; brother, Leslie Redd of Chester, Pennsylvania; devoted aunt, Queenie Mae Hardaway; six grandchildren, two devoted, Felicia R. and James C. Brown both of Henrico, Virginia; several greatgrandchildren; and a host of other family members and friends.
