

Charles M. Smith

March 4, 1931 - March 4, 2019

Charles M. Smith, son of the late Robert and Gladys Smith, was born on March 4, 1931 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on March 4, 2019. He was a graduate of Carver High School. He was married to the late Lenora Reid and from this union they have five lovely children. Charles was affectionately known as “Biggie” by his nieces and nephews and “Smitty” by his friends.

Charles inherited his work ethic from his father. He was employed at Bethlehem Steel Sparrows Point where he worked diligently for 40 years. His work ethic was respected and recognized on numerous occasions.

“Smitty” was a social butterfly and was known at numerous lounges and pubs. He was known for his strut throughout East Baltimore. That famous strut earned Smitty the name “Jive Time”. He was an avid foodie and enjoyed plenty of sweets. He loved all types of sporting events and was a fan of The Baltimore Ravens.

He accepted Christ while battling numerous health issues. During his last days he often talked about the Lord and would call on his name. A quote from his favorite spiritual hymn that brought him solace was “I’m coming up Lord, although my burdens sometime they press me down, but if I can only keep this faith. I’ll have strength just to run this race; I’m looking for my starry crown.”

Loving Memories of Charles Smith life will be cherished by: his beloved children, Deborah “Debbie” Barnes, Charlene Adams (James Adams),

One devoted friend, Elvi "Caroline" Kane; sixty years of friendship with Herb Presbury. A brother and six sisters; granddaughter, Robin Smith; and his son-in-law, Donald Barnes who preceded him in death. A host of cousins, nieces, nephews and friends.
