“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of Mr. Tetteh. Acts 24:15 lovingly informs us: "There is going to be a resurrection." May you receive much comfort and strength every time you think about the wonderful resurrection hope found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Mrs. Hill##imported-end##

“ I offer my sincere sympathy to the family at this most difficult time. Please keep the resurrection hope close to your hearts, because this is the wonderful hope Jehovah holds out to those who have died, to restore the life force to them once again. It was never his intention for people to die, because he is the source of all life, and he considers death to be the worst enemy. That is why we can believe in his promise at 1st Cor 15:26 which says, "As the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing." The prophet Daniel was inspired by God to write at Daniel 12,2" "There will be many of those asleep in the ground of dust who will wake up." Jehovah God has given his son Jesus all authority to resurrect the dead. This promise is found at John 5:26-29 which says: "For just as the father has life in himself, so he has granted also to the Son to have life in himself. "And he has given him authority to do judging, because Son of man he is." "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out; those who did good things to a resurrection of life." May you be comforted by Jehovah's wonderful promises until that glorious day of salvation comes to pass.##imported-begin##R
