

Charles Thomas Brice

November 18, 1939 - October 15, 2002

Charles Thomas Brice, known as “Bucky” was born to the late Dorothy and Noble Brice on November 18, 1939 in Baltimore, Md. On October 15, 2002 in the early hour. God called Bucky to his heavenly home after a brief, but terminal illness. Bucky was married to Carmen Farrar and the father of William, Lennie and grandfather of Sharmah. Bucky early life was spent in Baltimore, Maryland, where he attended the Baltimore City School. Later, he moved to New York City, where he was employed by the New York Times, he started as a janitor and worked up to become the office manager. (God is Good). He retired in 1999. To know Bucky was to love him. His heart was as big as his smile; he would give you the very shirt off his back. Bucky loved his family dearly. Especially his nieces and nephews, friends and anyone who came in contact with him. Bucky accepted the Lord Jesus Christ as his personal Savior. He knew he had a home prepared for him, his last words to his wife “not my will, but thine will be done.” He leaves to cherish his memory a devoted wife, Carmen; sons, William and Lennie; grandson, Sharmah; brothers, Robert, Maurice and David Brice, two sisters, April Hinton, Minister Linda Brice, nieces, nephews, great nieces, great nephews, cousins, and a host of friends.
