

Charles Mack Underwood

December 8, 1958 - January 2, 2020

"Today we will collect our fond memories and hold dearly the part of Mack that has been given to each of us, so that in the days to come, we will join him in rejoicing, knowing that someday we will meet again.

Charles Underwood, 61, affectionately known as "Charlie Mack" or "Mack" was born December 8, 1958 to Helen Boyd and the late Junius Adolph Underwood, Sr. in Richmond, Virginia. He departed this life on Thursday, January 2, 2020 at Memorial Regional Hospital. He was preceded in death by his sister, Antoinette Dianna Underwood-Mitchell; brothers, Robert Lee Underwood, Junius Adolph Underwood, Jr. and Howard Armstead Underwood.

Charlie Mack attended the Richmond Public Schools and obtained his General Educational Development (GED).

He was well-known throughout the community and enjoyed spending time with his family and friends. "Mack" was a chef and specialized in making pastries. He was a very devoted son, brother, uncle and friend.

Charles is survived by his mother, Helen B. Underwood; sister Linda

Underwood; aunt, Catherine Robinson-Taylor, nieces, Tracy Underwood and Ayana Smith; nephews, Argentine (Rashida) Mitchell and Joshua Gibson-Underwood; special great-nephew and great-nieces, Jabari, Brandi, Lakeyia and Jasmine Underwood and a host of loving cousins, other relatives and devoted friends.

“ My Dear Aunt Helen and my sweet Cousin Linda. I am saddened by the sudden departure of Charlie Mack. I did not get to spend a lot of time with him due to traveling in the military. I often thought of him and Diane, Bobby, Ba Bro, and Bubba Dee. Out of sight however does not mean out of mind! I know that Charlie Mack is celebrating his freedom from pain and is reunited with Uncle Junius and the rest of the Underwood clan. Please take comfort in these biblical verses.

Isaiah 41:10 Don't be afraid, for I am with you. Don't be discouraged, for I am your God. I will strengthen you and help you. I will hold you up with my victorious right hand.

Hold on to God's unchanging hand. Love You Both.
