“ My dear husband, there isn't a day goes past that i don't miss You. God called You home, because he did not want You to suffer. I love YOU, I miss YOU, N I know we did not get to do a lot things we had intended to do, but i am gratefull for the time God gave me with You. So many memories,, in such a short time. Our love we had for each other will always live in my heart n mine. I loved how we use to pack our clothes in a minute n leave town on a adventure having lots of fun n just being together. I love cooking for You, n watching You enjoyed eating. The cookouts the parties,the holidays with the children n the family, My sister, Cynthia Davis Wilson, loved to say my brother in Law Charles. I loved it When You use to make us breakfast, fried apples with bacon scramble eggs n toast n coffee mmmmm good i can still smell it. Your jokes coming home from work (Honey, I'm home n i would reply okay Ricky) Lucy n Ricky. You took part of my Heart with You . My comfort is when time comes i Know my enternal rest will be with You in our grave together again, so i'l be saying i'm Home, your reply will be okay Lucy.
