“ To:Uncle Charlie and Family, May the richness of God's soothing grace and peace be with all of you at this time. We all loved Charles Wallace, but God loved him best. Take great comfort in knowing that our loved one, though he is absent from our sight is resting comfortably in the arms of Jesus--in the sight of God. Be blest and know that we all love and support you at this difficult time.##imported-begin##Arletha D. Stokes##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. First Corinthians chapter 15, verse 26 rightly informs us that our "enemy death" will be "destroyed". There is hope for our dead loved ones. Acts 24:15 confirms that by declaring "there is going to be a resurrection". May you receive much comfort and strength every time you think about these loving promises found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Mrs. Sharon Hill##imported-end##
