

Charles A. Washington

June 28, 1939 - April 11, 2015

Charles Albert Washington was born on June 28, 1939 in Greenville, North Carolina. He was one of four born to the late Grover Washington, Sr. and the late Katherine (White) Washington.

Charles, lovingly known as “Uncle Charles” by many, received his formal education through the Baltimore Public School System where he excelled in his studies.

He was employed at the Charles Center in Baltimore until he became ill in 1979. He enjoyed reading, keeping up with current news events, family visits, and laughter. He especially enjoyed good food. Charles was truly blessed. Although he faced many challenges, he was an example to others to always try your best. He touched the lives of many people with his inner strength and his kind spirit. He tried to maintain his trademark sense of humor until the end. He will be missed.

He was preceded in death by his father, mother and brother Grover Washington, Jr.

He leaves to cherish his memory: one daughter, Crystal Washington; three grandchildren, Schnieca Hicks, Terry Hicks, and Tyrone Hicks; two sisters, Dorothy Graham and Lois Brand; eight nieces, two nephews and a host of other relatives and friends.
