

Charles C. Young

November 30, 1940 - December 19, 2023

CHARLES CALVIN YOUNG was born on November 30, 1940 in Dover, Delaware to the late Charles and Clara (Polk) Young. He departed this life on December 19, 2023, at the Future Care Caton Harbor rehabilitation facility in Baltimore, Maryland.

Charles was affectionately known as “Junie” by family and friends. Junie excelled at any sport in which he was involved. Football, baseball and basketball were sports made for him. He was educated in the Baltimore City school system. He entered the military service as soon as he could, and enlisted in the US Army where he earned his High School diploma. Junie liked to sing and while in the Army he started a band. He spent several years in Germany during his enlistment, and it was one of his favorite duty stations. After he was honorably discharged and returned to Baltimore, he held various jobs and finally retired from Southern States Trucking.

He was preceded in death by his parents Charles and Clara (Polk) Young, sister

Barbara “Bunny” Young, younger brother John “Johnny” Young and long-time companion, Pearl.

Junie leaves to cherish his memory: his brother, James “Jimmy” Young (Peggy); nieces, Bridget Young, Diana Young, Jacqueline Jamison, Ingar Simmons (Eddie) and Celeste Brooks (Frankie); nephews, Eric “Mandy” Young and Frank “Frankie” Young; a host of great-nephews, -nieces, cousins, other relatives and friends.
