“ May you be comforted and strengthened as you deal with the passing of your loved one. When we lose a loved one in death it is so painful, and the question comes to mind: Will I really ever see my loved one again, because death seems so final. People the world over have pondered over this question, and only the bible holds the answers as to the true condition of the dead. Indeed, it does let us know that the dead will live again. Some will live in heaven; the actually number being 144,000, while the vast majority will live on a restored paradise earth. Rev 14:1=3 speaks of these 144,000 being brought from the earth, and Psalm 37:10,11,29, as well as Isaiah 65:17, and 2nd Peter 3:13 speaks of this new paradise earth. Whatever our destiny is we can rest assured that the dead will live again to enjoy wonderful conditions, because John 5:28,29 lets us know that the dead will hear the voice of Jesus, and they will come out of the memorial tombs to life everlasting. May those thoughts from the bible comfort you, and help you to cope with your loss.##imported-begin##Rita Johnson##imported-end##

“ Hello ! Day's ! May it help in a small way to know that others send their fellow fellow in your recent loss of Mr. Charley after 84 years. Living for a very long time is in fulfillment of Ps. 90:10, " Some person will live to be 70 years and others 80 years because of special mightiness". I am looking forward to the time when no more will we be losing our very dear love ones in death. It is so wonderful to know that our heavenly father care so much about all of us, 1 Peter 5:7. We have so much to look forward to in the future to bring our hearts Happiness, Ps. 145:16. May all the many times spent with Mr. Charley keep sustaining and supporting you all in life journey.##imported-begin##L..C##imported-end##
