

Charlie Carter

July 25, 1935 - June 6, 2016

CHARLIE CARTER, also known as Pop, was called home to glory to receive his wings on Monday morning June 6, 2016. He was born in Baltimore City on July 25, 1935 to his parents, the late James and Pauline Carter.

He received his education in the Baltimore City Public School systems. He was employed by Western Union as an electrician, where he ultimately gave 30 years of service, before he later retired. During that time he was united in holy matrimony to Barbara Jean Neal Carter in 1965, and from that union three children were born. That however was not enough for Charlie, he later went on to work for another company as a maintenance engineer and retired once again after a few years of service.

He was liked and loved by everyone that knew him. Everyone also knew that if there was something he could do to make your day better or to help you out, he would without a second thought, which was just the man he was.

He leaves to mourn: his wife, Barbara Carter; three sons, Charles Carter, Efrem Carter and Daryle Carter; two daughters-in-law, Stacey Carter and Rebecca Carter; ten grandchildren, Ethan, Tyrone, Charlisa, Cameron, Devonte, TerShell, Victor, Taylor, Bryant and Kazya; five great-grandchildren, one brother and three sisters, along with a host of nieces and nephews that he loved like his own children.

After glow I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one,
I'd like to leave an after glow of smiles when life is done;
I'd like to leave an echo whispering softly down the ways,

of happy times and laughing times and bright and summer days;
I'd like the tears of those who grieve to dry before the sun,
of happy memories that I leave when this life is done.
