

Charlie Casperd Cash

March 12, 1939 - April 3, 2009

CHARLIE C. CASH, son of the late Charlie B. and Viola Cash, was born on March 12, 1935 in Wadesboro, North Carolina. On April 3, 2009 God saw fit to transition Charlie from his pain and suffering after a lengthy illness, to everlasting peace. He received his education at Anson County Training School in Wadesboro. At an early age he became employed as a movie projectionist. In 1956 he started employment in the retail food stores. He worked in various stores until he retired from Shoppers Foods in 2003, because of illness. After retirement he joined the R.O.M.E.O. Club (a club for retired men) that met at a McDonald's in Randallstown five to six days a week to eat and exchange stories. He enjoyed spending those times with his friends. Charlie made numerous friends wherever he went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew him. He leaves to mourn: a devoted and faithful companion of many years, Ernestine Marshall; one son, Joe Horne; two daughters, Annie Mae Horne and Deborah Small; three stepsons, Joseph, Reginald and Ronald; one brother, Richelieu Cash; grandchildren, aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces, nephews and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. The death of a loved one is something that we will never get used to because it is not natural. The bible refers to death as our 'enemy', and very soon Almighty God Jehovah by means of his son Christ Jesus will bring our enemy death to nothing!##imported-begin##Kevin Jackson##imported-end##
