

Charlie Jackson Jr.

June 3, 1953 - March 29, 2021

Charlie Jackson, jr., was the fourth of five children born to the late Charlie Sr. and Mary Jackson, born June 3, 1953, in Darlington, South Carolina. After a lengthy illness, he departed into eternal rest, March 29, 2021. His sister Dorothy and brother preceded him in death.

Charlie nicknamed “Popa” by his father when he was a baby. He had a great sense of humor. He was a happy-go-lucky guy, who could make almost everyone laugh. He loved hearing and telling jokes. Reading, playing games, and cards were some of his favorite past times. He enjoyed helping his mom in her garden.

In 1957 the family moved to Baltimore, Maryland. He received his education, and played football at “Mervo” High from which he graduated. He later moved in with his sister Pat. He made many friends in the neighborhood and had nicknames for many. He would do what he could for the elderly.

Popa had a close relationship with his niece, Antineal Weathersby. They would laugh, kid, and joke. She would help him in any way she could. She called him old man, helped him get his hair cut, get medical supplies and any special foods he wanted. When she realized he was sick the final time, she called the ambulance. Thank you for all you did for him.

After graduation he went into the U.S. Army and served four years. He then became a rods-man for various construction companies, until his retirement.

He married his high school sweet heart, Sandra Garnett. Out of this union two children were born, they later divorced.

He is survived by his two children, Dion C. Jackson (Kimberly) and Keyuna Jackson of Texas; three grandchildren, Tyreik, Tytiana and Kimora; two sisters, Margaret Jackson of Alameda, California and Patricia Jackson of Baltimore, Maryland; two nephews, Eugene and Anthony Bowens of Baltimore, Maryland; three great nieces, Clarrissa, Charlyeassa (Milyassa) and Angel; two great nephews, Anthony and Antonio Bowens; and a host of uncles and aunts in South Carolina and New York, relatives and friends.

“ To Charlie's Entire Family:

God Bless Everyone of You during this difficult time. Charlie was indeed a "tripp" and made me laugh each time I saw him.

Although he was technically my brother's friend, he became my friend through them. So Charlie, say hi to Momma for me and enjoy a nice cold one on me!

Peace & Blessings....

Sweetie
