

Charlie Ornie Lee Knotts

July 11, 1923 - July 29, 2007

Charlie O. Knotts, son of the late Charlie F. Knotts and Addie Hubbard, was born on July 11, 1923, in Wadesboro, North Carolina. After a long struggle with cancer, he departed this life on July 29, 2007 at 9:05 PM, in the comfort of his home. As we mourn our loss, we celebrate the beginning of his new life in the glory of his home going. "Omie", one of his nicknames, received his education in Wadesboro, North Carolina. He came to Baltimore in 1945. Also, in 1945, he went back to Wadesboro and married Marion Tyson. They moved to Baltimore in 1949 where they made this their permanent home. He worked for the City of Baltimore until retirement in 1988. He enjoyed fishing and hunting. His favorite past time was bowling with Woody and the gang. His nieces and nephews affectionately called him "Uncle Dank". He is survived by: his wife, Marion Knotts; two sisters; Flossie Dean and Bessie Hubbard; one brother; James Macdonald; one sister-in-law; Hattie Bennett. A host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren; great-great grandchildren, nieces, nephews, and a host of other family members and friends.

“ Please accept my sincere sympathy for your loss. Despite this painful time, you can be comforted by the promises in the Bible about the resurrection. At John 11:25 we see Jesus' words: "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life. Jehovah truly blessed mankind by providing his Dear Son, Jesus Christ, as a ransom sacrifice. God's Kingdom will bless mankind in all sorts of ways, but one that will have millions jumping for joy is the chance to see their dead loves ones again.##imported-begin##A. Robinson##imported-end##

“ May I send fellow feeling . Living for 84 years is wonderful. There are many loving caring hearts that know how you all are feeling in your recent heart break. Imagine the joy to had when the dead are resurrected to life again, John 5:28. Death will be swallow up forever as Isa.25:8 say. I hope these words will make your days brighter as we keep going in life journey.##imported-begin##lilian Crosby##imported-end##
